

Cashew exports to U.S. increase

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 03 April 2010 02:22

According to the Vietnam Cashew Association (Vinacas), current U.S. export market is the largest cashew in Vietnam.

Exports of cashew to the U.S. market in June 5000 reached 21.5 million tonnes with a turnover of U.S. dollars, up to 60% in volume and 72% in turnover over the previous month, while the export market Other major exports increase slightly or decrease slightly. According to the Vietnam Cashew Association (Vinacas), the current U.S. market of cashew export of Vietnam's largest, in the first six months of this year, export of cashew to the U.S. reached 85 million U.S. dollars

, accounting for 28% of the total export turnover of the 300 million U.S. dollars. In second place is the Chinese market in six months, Vietnam exported 15,700 tonnes to this market with the turnover of 67 million U.S. dollars, accounting for 22% density.

But Vinacas said cashew production to China is keen to mitigate.